Specialized High School Test Prep 2010

Kuei Luck Enrichment Center has specially designed a program which will utilize the summers and the days leading up to the NYC Specialized High School Entrance Exam for eighth and ninth grade students. Students will become more familiar with the material on the exam.

About New York City Specialized High Schools

New York City has eight specialized high schools tailored for the city's most advanced students. Admission to these prestigious public institutions requires students to take the Specialized High School Entrance Exam. This exam is a highly competitive exam which will test skills such as high-level literacy analysis, problem solving through the use of reasoning and logic. All eighth and ninth grade New York City students are eligible to take this test in the fall.

What We Offer

Kuei Luck Enrichment Center has a three tiered program which caters to all types of students alike. Whether

❖ SHSAT Tier I July 6th, 2010 – October 16th, 2010

Our Tier I package is an all inclusive package. It is a combination of both our Tier II and III service so that your child gets the best of both worlds. Your child will receive instruction on the material tested on in the exam. They will also learn test taking skills and take several mock exams. This all inclusive service will ensure that your child is fully prepared to take the Specialized High School Entrance Exam.
